Pastoralism

JOB DESCRIPTION

Position for Design Manager
June 2022

Centre for Pastoralism (CfP) works on pastoralists' issues across India. Our associates and partners range from pastoral communities to universities, NGOs, and government organisations, artisanal cheesemakers, visual artists and documentary film makers. CfP is looking to hire a Design Manager to join its outreach team to plan and deliver its 'Living lightly- Journeys with Pastoralists' traveling exhibition to various locations across the country, as well as support the conceptualisation, planning and execution of regional utsavs celebrating local pastoral cultures across the Western Himalayas.

This is a full time position, for a period of two years, and can be based out of either Delhi or Bangalore. The person is expected to support the successful completion of Living Lightly's upcoming touring schedule.

Responsibilities:

- Based on the requirements of various Living Lightly exhibitions, guide the design process, manage the production of the exhibitions and all associated design domains;
- Support the conceptualisation, planning and executing of small scale exhibitions and regional Utsavs – festivals;
- With the curatorial team, take responsibility for assembling, arranging and overseeing assets, ideas and strategies for the presentation of pastoral narratives in exhibitions planned during the contract period ;
- Network and coordinate with field partners, artistes, section curators and exhibition designers to plan, initiate, develop and install the exhibits;
