Position for Living Lightly Coordinator

January 2024

Centre for Pastoralism (CfP) works on pastoralists' issues across India. Our associates and partners range from pastoral communities to universities, NGOs, and government organisations, artisanal cheesemakers, architects, visual artists and documentary film makers. CfP is looking to hire an anchor to lead the Living Lightly team at Centre for Pastoralism. This involves assisting the current team with the Living Lightly Bangalore exhibition, end 2024, and to conceptualise, plan and execute a series of exhibitions on pastoralism across the Western Himalayas.

This is a full-time position, for a minimum of three years, and will be based out of Delhi as well as travel to field sites across the Deccan and Himalayan region. The person is primarily expected to support the successful completion of all upcoming Living Lightly exhibitions and events.

Responsibilities:

- a. Network and coordinate with field facilitators, civil society partners, artistes, section curators, exhibition designers and venue and logistics partners to plan, initiate, develop and install the exhibits;
- b. Accompany or independently represent LL in the public domain - sponsors, donors, partners, civil society organisations, media etc;
- c. Develop concept notes, proposals, reports for LL;
- d. Initiate fund raising activities for Living Lightly;
- e. Manage and expand, if necessary, the Living Lightly team, in accordance with the needs of the work;
